If coming from Berlin Tegel Airport take the bus TXL towards Alexanderplatz (which also stops in front of BGSS and Cum Laude Restaurant). From the Airport Berlin-Schönefeld, go to the S-Bhf Berlin-Schönefeld and take the RB41 in direction to Friedrichstraße. At bvg.de you can also check for connections yourself. If there are any doubts regarding your arrival and the journey to your hotel please do not hesitate to ask us. Please note that you need to buy a ticket (Berlin AB or ABC if arriving at Schönefeld).

Navigating Berlin

Berlin is divided into the fare zones A, B and C for which you will need an appropriate travel ticket to use the public transport service (including bus & rail). Section A comprises the Berlin inner city up to and including the S-Bahn Ring. Section B is located outside the S-Bahn Ring up to the city limits. Section C is the area around Berlin, including the town of Potsdam, the Sachsenhausen Memorial Site and Berlin's Schönefeld Airport.

Berlin is cash-based economy. Remember to bring cash with you at all times. Most restaurants and bars do not accept cards.
